

GREAT TURF BUT SAFETY FIRST!

Questions? mickey@mccordgolf.com | 919-345-5831

Hazard Communication -- Review Quiz

Name _____

Date _____

Mark a T next to the statement if it is true, or an F if the statement is false.

- 1- All employees must be trained to identify and work safely with hazardous materials.
- 2- Only pesticides are considered hazardous.
- 3- The most immediate source for information is a product label.
- 4- The signal word "Danger" means a material is only slightly hazardous.
- 5- A Safety Data Sheet provides detailed information about a specific hazardous material.
- 6- Liquid near a container or a "chemical" odor can be indications of a hazardous material spill.
- 7- Training is not part of a Hazard Communication program.
- 8- All hazardous materials must have a label even if they're in a portable container.
- 9- Pictograms are symbols meant to convey specific information about the hazard.
- 10- Personal protective equipment (PPE) is listed on the label, but you don't have to wear it.

Answer key:

1- T

2- F

3- T

4- F

5- T

6- T

7- F

8- T

9- T

10- F